NONPROFIT BYLAWS
OF THE
OREGON ENVIRONMENTAL HEALTH ASSOCIATION

APPROVED
March 11, 2021

Bylaws

PREAMBLE

The following Bylaws shall be subject to, and governed by, the Non-Profit Corporation Act of Oregon, the Articles of Incorporation for the State of Oregon, and the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) Code as a 501(c)6 tax exempt organization.

ARTICLE 1 - Name

1. The name of this non-profit corporation shall be the Oregon Environmental Health Association (OEHA) and its duration shall be perpetual. It shall hereafter be referred to herein as the "Association".

2. The Association shall hold and may exercise all such powers as may be conferred upon any nonprofit organization by the laws of the State of Oregon and as may be necessary or expedient for the administration of the affairs and attainment of the purposes of the Association.

ARTICLE 2 – PURPOSE

The purpose of the Association is to advance the environmental health profession in Oregon by promoting the highest degree of skill, efficiency and professional competence of Environmental Health Specialists and Practitioners. This is accomplished by fostering communication among Environmental Health professionals, providing educational opportunities and working with other organizations to improve and maintain the standards and performance in environmental health.

ARTICLE 3 - OFFICES
The current mailing address for the Association is PO Box 502, Bend, Oregon 97709.

ARTICLE 4 – DEDICATION OF ASSETS

The properties and assets of the Association are irrevocably dedicated to and for the nonprofit purposes only. No part of the net earnings, properties, or assets of this Association on dissolution or otherwise, shall inure to the benefit of any person or any member, director, or officer of the Association. On liquidation or dissolution, all remaining properties and assets of the Association shall be distributed and paid over to an organization dedicated to a nonprofit purpose which has established its tax-exempt status pursuant to Section 501(c) of the IRS Code. The Executive Board serving at the time of dissolution shall determine this donation and seek such legal and tax advice as necessary to manage the dissolution of the Association.

ARTICLE 5 – BOARD

1. General Powers and Responsibilities:

   1.1. The Association shall be governed by the Board of Directors (“the Board”), which shall have all the rights, powers, privileges and limitations of liability of directors of a nonprofit corporation organized under the Non-Profit Corporation Act of Oregon.

   1.2. The Board has three primary duties:

      1.2.1. Duty of Care: Take care of the nonprofit by ensuring prudent use of all assets, including facility, people, and good will;

      1.2.2. Duty of Loyalty: Ensure that the nonprofit's activities and transactions are, first and foremost, advancing its mission; Recognize and disclose conflicts of interest; Make decisions that are in the best interest of the nonprofit Association; not in the best interest of the individual board members, or any other individual or for-profit entity; and

2.4. A report on all legislative activity shall be prepared for the Annual Business Meeting.

2.4.8. Quorum for meetings shall be a simple majority of the Legislative Committee.

2.5. The Nominating Committee shall seek nominations for candidates for the offices of President-Elect, Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer, and Regional Directors as provided for under Article 12- Nominations and Elections.

2.6. The Membership Committee shall devise ways and means of increasing membership of the Association.

2.7. The Scholarship Committee shall process and make recommendations of candidates for scholarship funds to the Board.

3. The following committees shall be known as Ad-hoc Committees of the Association:

3.1. The Bylaws Committee shall propose amendments as necessary to assure the efficient and legal operation of the Association. The President shall appoint one or more committee members necessary to conduct the review.

3.2. The Ethics Committee shall upon written request by two or more members in good standing review the action of any member concerning the Code of Ethics section of these bylaws. After such review, the committee shall make recommendations to the Board of Directors for appropriate action. All reviews by the committee shall be conducted in confidence. The Board shall conduct any investigation as provided for under Article 17.

3.3. The Strategic Planning Committee may be formed by the President or the Board for the purpose of long term planning.

4. Other appointments:

4.1. The OEHA Trailer Manager is to engage membership on how to rent the OEHA Trailer, track current location of the trailer, assure that appropriate licenses, inspection, and routine maintenance is being performed. One representative for each trailer shall be appointed by the President and approved by the Board.

4.2. An agency or organization requesting the Association’s representation on an advisory board, workgroup, or other similar capacity may be considered by the President.

4.2.1. The term of the appointment shall be at the discretion of the President in consultation with the requesting agency or organization.

4.2.2. For the purpose of assuring the Association’s view is represented, the President shall determine in what fashion the appointee shall provide information to the President and the Board regarding decision making being considered by the entity being served.

4.2.3. The person assigned to represent the Association will need to work closely with the President and the Board to faithfully represent the interest of the Association and not their own personal interest or opinion. Policy questions should be referred to the Board for guidance.

4.2.3.1. The Oregon Health Authority (OHA) Drinking Water Program Advisory Committee is a three year terms. The representative to this committee shall be made by the President and approved by the Board.

ARTICLE 15 - IMPEACHMENT OF OFFICERS

1. Any member of the Board of Directors as defined under Article 5 section 1.3 who fails to fulfill their duties as specified in Articles 5 through 7 may be impeached. Such failures shall be deemed sufficient grounds for immediate impeachment by petition of two-thirds (2/3) of the voting membership.

2. "By petition of two-thirds (2/3) of the voting membership" shall mean that a petition presented to any member of the Board of Directors by any member of the Association and bearing the signature of 2/3 of the voting members of the Association and clearly stating the name of the person or persons to be impeached and the specific reason(s) for the impeachment. Upon receipt of the petition, it shall be the duty of the member of Board receiving the petition to call a Board of Directors Meeting within 10 days from the receipt of the petition. The Board shall review the petition to determine if the following are presented; (1) the name(s) of the officer(s) involved; (2) a clear statement of the offense(s); and (3) signatures (on the petition) which appear to be valid.

3. A fact-finding investigation to determine validity of statement (s) shall precede further impeachment action. Such fact-finding action will include the appointment of a member of the Board of Directors not involved in the impeachment action and two active members appointed by the Board of Directors. Such fact-finding shall be a minimum of seven working days but no more than fourteen working days in length.

4. The results of the fact-finding shall be presented to the Board of Directors at a Special Meeting of the Board of Directors called specifically for the impeachment action.

5. Any Board Member under impeachment shall have the opportunity to present evidence or information to the Board of Directors that substantiates their case in the impeachment action.

6. It shall not be incumbent upon the Board of Directors to abide by any result from the fact-finding since a two-third (2/3) of the membership signing such a petition constitutes prima facie evidence of a lack of confidence in the impeached officer to continue as a leader in the Association.

7. The Board members not named in the petition may take a no confidence vote. If the no confidence vote passes, the Board member(s) named in the petition will be removed from office. The remaining members of the Board of Directors shall appoint officer(s) or Regional Director(s) to fill the remaining term until the next election per Article 5, Section 1.6 Vacancies.
ARTICLE 16 - AMENDMENTS

1. This Bylaws may be amended at any Annual Meeting by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of members present.

2. Amendments may be proposed in writing by the Board of Directors or by five (5) members in good standing to the Secretary of the Association thirty (30) days before the Annual Meeting.

3. The Secretary shall mail or e-mail a copy of such proposed amendment to each Association member at least fifteen (15) days before the Annual Meeting.

4. Publication in the Newsletter may serve as mailing.

ARTICLE 17 - ETHICS & STANDARDS

1. Preamble: To establish and maintain high standards of integrity; increase the skills, talents and practices in the broad field of Environmental Health, and more specifically the members of this Association who are engaged in Environmental Health activities for the protection of the health and welfare of the public;

2. Moreover, to meet the goals and objectives of the Association the following rules of professional conduct are promulgated as part of the Oregon Environmental Health Association By-Laws and shall be binding upon every member.

3. All members of the Association are charged with having knowledge of these rules of Professional Conduct and shall be familiar with their provisions therein. Such knowledge shall encompass the understanding that membership in the Association is contingent upon the adherence to these rules.

4. As such all members and officers of the Association shall abide by the following:
4.1. The term "member" as used herein includes both voting and non-voting membership as indicated in the Association Bylaws.

4.2. Integrity: Members of the Association shall act with integrity in all matters relating to activities and actions related to professional matters regarding each client and/or employer as a faithful trustee. They shall be honest and impartial and shall serve the public, their client, and their employer with equal devotion.

4.3. Responsibility: Members of the Association shall at all times recognize their primary obligation to protect the life, health, and welfare of the public in the performance of their professional acts. If such obligation cannot be maintained because of circumstances where the life, health and welfare of the public are endangered due to situations beyond the member’s immediate control, the member shall notify proper authorities of the situation as may be appropriate.

4.4. Competency: Members of the Association shall perform their professional duties consistent with their education and experience. Members of the Association shall strive to continually improve and develop their skill, knowledge, and abilities through educational, experiential, and networking processes.

4.5. Members of the Association shall strive to be objective and truthful in all professional reports, statements, or testimony. Public statements or reports the member present shall be factual, conclusive, and based on environmental health principles and practices. Such statements are to be consistent with their education and experience.

4.6. Whenever a member of the Association serves as an expert or technical witness to or on behalf of any court or commission or other tribunal, the member shall express their professional judgment based on adequate knowledge of the established facts at issue; upon a background of technical or administrative competence in the subject matter; and upon the member’s honest and true conviction of the accuracy of the testimony given.
4.7. Conflict of interest: Members of the Association shall conscientiously avoid the appearance of a conflict of interest with their employer, client or any agent, agency, individual(s), entities which the Association are engaged in a business arrangement or partnership or in which a business or partnership arrangement is contemplated. When such is unavoidable, the member shall disclose the circumstances detailing the potential conflict to their employer or client or agent, agency, individual(s), entities which the Association are engaged in a business arrangement or partnership or in which a business or partnership arrangement is contemplated.

4.8. Members of the Association will issue no statement, criticism or argument dealing with Environmental Health matters that are in their own interest or are paid for by any agent, agency, individual(s), entities which the Association are engaged in a business arrangement or partnership or in which a business or partnership arrangement is contemplated.

4.9. The member shall explicitly identify such by disclosing the identities of the party, or parties on whose behalf they are acting and by revealing the existence of any pecuniary interest they have in such matters.

4.10. Members of the Association shall not accept assignment to, nor compensation or otherwise from more than one party for services to the same project or for services pertaining to the same project unless circumstances are fully disclosed to, and agreed to by all interested parties. The member shall not solicit or accept financial or other valuable considerations from any agent, agency, individual(s), and entities that the Association is engaged in a business arrangement or partnership or in which a business or partnership arrangement is contemplated.

4.11. Members shall not accept any gratuity directly or indirectly from any contractor, their agent, or any party dealing with their client or employer connected with employment responsibilities unless specifically granted in writing by the employer.
4.12. Members shall conduct themselves consistent with and not contrary to the spirit or intent of written policies or administrative rules of the employing agency, corporation, profit or non-profit entity whether governmental or private.

4.13. Members of the Association shall not offer to pay any commission, political contribution, or to give a gift or other consideration in order to secure work, exclusive of securing salaried positions through employment agencies.

4.14. Members shall seek professional employment based on qualification and competence for accomplishment of the work.

4.15. Members shall not permit the misrepresentation of their professional qualification whether by brochure or other presentation: no misrepresentation of pertinent facts concerning employers, clients, joint ventures or past accomplishments.

4.16. Improper Conduct: The members shall not knowingly associate with or permit the use of their name, or firm name in a business venture by any person or firm which they know, or have reason to believe, is engaging in business or professional practices of a fraudulent or dishonest nature.

4.17. If a member has knowledge or reason to believe that another person or firm may be in violation of any of these provisions, or of ORS Chapter 700, they shall present such information to the Board of Directors or its representatives for such matters, in writing and shall cooperate with the Board of Directors, in furnishing such further information or assistance as may be requested by the Board of Directors, or its representatives.

4.18. Revocation/Suspension: The Board of Directors may revoke or suspend membership in this association if in the judgment of the Board a member has failed to conform to those rules of professional conduct contained in these bylaws. In the event of such action, the member shall be notified in writing of the action taken. Conviction of a felony without restoration of civil rights, or the revocation of suspension of a professional registration for a cause which would constitute a violation of these rules, shall be grounds for a charge of violation of these rules.

4.19. Application: The Board of Directors shall issue a copy of the bylaws of this association to each applicant accepted for membership and shall consider these rules of professional conduct when evaluating each applicant for membership in the Association.

4.20. The Board of Directors may refuse or grant membership based on the qualifications and rules of professional conduct contained in the Bylaws.
These bylaws were approved by the membership at the Association’s Annual Business Meeting held on March 11, 2021.
